Maiden Lane Property in Bemand-The Arragon and Navarre Apartments at Broadway and Ninety-ninth Street Figure in a Deal-Big Sale at Flushing.

Trading at private contract continued yesterday to be on a large scale. A huge volume of business was done in the flat and tenement districts. The dealing there was supplemented by a considerable number of transactions in mercantile premises, elevator apartment houses, private dwellings and suburban realty. The demand for suburban property was especially active for suburban property was especially active in Queens. Among the sales reported from that borough was one of 105 acres at Flushing. The property was bought by an operating company and will be developed for resale in lots. Business in the Vesey street auction room was comparatively quiet. The plans filed for new constructior s in Manhattan and The Bronz reflected a sharp contraction of enterprise in the building industry.
